

What Is Separation Anxiety?

Separation Anxiety is a condition in which a dog exhibits distress and behavior problems when separated from its owner. It is not fully understood why some dogs suffer from separation anxiety and others don't.

Studies have been unable to pinpoint the exact causes, but experts have indicated that 20 to 40 percent of dogs face distress symptoms that exhibit separation anxiety.

20%*40%

Scan this QR code to visit the Clomipramine Hydrochloride tablets website.

